For our location in Gratkorn we are looking for a

Junior Secure Software Developer (m/f/d)

We are extending our team for Secure Smart Card and Secure Element solutions in Gratkorn and are looking for a Junior OS/JavaCard Developer.

This exciting position will give you the opportunity to get to know the various aspects of the product development process and to gain a broader picture of the project environment. The final products are typically used in Smart Cards, IoT devices or mobile phones.

Your responsibilities:

- Working in a team to extend current products with additional functionality
- Embedded software development
- Supporting software for customer design in and production

Your profile:

- Degree from a technical university
- Proficiency in one or more of the following: Global Platform(GP) JavaCard technology Operating system design and implementation Low level hardware knowledge Secure implementation Good coding skills in Java/JavaCard/C/ASM Build process knowledge
- Written and spoken English skills
- Work experience in the area of software development is beneficial.

Ready to create a smarter world? Join the future of Innovation. Join NXP. Apply online!

At NXP in Austria, we are proud to have received the Leading Employer Award 2020 & 2021, which is presented exclusively only to the top 1% of employers in Austria.

If you are interested in this position, please apply online or send an email to lisa.ziermann@nxp.com.