

INTERNSHIP MATERIALS AND INSPECTION LAB (M/F/D)

What if energy supply could be sustainable, affordable, and reliable at the same time? With its product brands Jenbacher and Waukesha and the digital platform myPlant, INNIO offers energy solutions for today—and tomorrow, in more than 100 countries, improving the quality of life for countless people. Do you want to make a difference with your work? For our Engineering department we are searching for an Intern Materials and Inspection Lab (m/f/d). Join our team now!

This internship lasts for a maximum of 6 months. An internship is a perfect start for a long-term career at INNIO and offers extension options as well as potential permanent employment opportunities. We look forward to receiving your application!

What this internship has to offer:

- Familiarization with Internal Combustion Engines
- Definition of failure investigation methods
- Metallographic sample preparation

Your Responsibilities:

- Working on numerous material related projects on a multitude of gas engine components
- Metallurgical sample preparation
- Support parts investigation and wear characteristics testing
- Planning and executing material test
- Preparation of report and result findings
- Literature research for background/supporting data relevant to the project being executed

Your Profile:

- Bachelor of science in an engineering discipline or similar preferred
- Good knowledge of material science, primarily in metallic materials
- Familiarity of material testing methods
- Enthusiasm and good basic knowledge about internal combustion engines
- A valid work permit for Austria is a prerequisite for this position (Non-EU citizens: please attach the work permit to the application)

The base pay is composed of the amount according to the Austrian collective agreement which is EUR 2.548,82 gross per month (x 14).

WHY INNIO JENBACHER?

- Innovative & international working environment
- Flexible working time model (depending on position and role)
- Health We Care Program – including company sport activities
- Good connections to public transport – station in direct proximity
- One of the best canteens in the area with healthy and various meals
- Moving cost support for new employees in accordance with policy
- Attractive location in the heart of the alps

