

Lead Engineer Electric/Automation (m/f/d)

What do you dream of?

A child dreams of a future free from constraints. It's a great quality that we tend to lose as we grow older.

At Sappi Europe, not only do we still want to dream, we want to make our dreams come true. We will continue to consolidate and reinforce our position as one of the world's leading producer of coated fine paper. To make our dreams come true, we need the right people to share our key employment values: integrity and trust, freedom with responsibility, courage to explore new avenues and personal development. Do you still dare to dream? Come and talk to us if you do.

Position Title: Lead Engineer Electric/Automation (m/f/d)
to join our Central Technology & Engineering department
Location: Gratkorn (Austria) or Lanaken (Belgium)

DETAILED JOB DESCRIPTION:

- Overall responsibility for the development and execution of projects under consideration of business cases technical and technological concepts
- Negotiations with suppliers and contract partners
- Performs the planning of the activities according to the scope of supply and services
- Responsible for creating and tracking the schedule
- Responsible for budget allocation, ongoing cost controlling, contract and claim management, risk analysis and reporting
- Leading an international project team

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE:

- The ability to work independently
- Completed technical education (technical university) with a focus on automation and electric plant engineering, respectively qualification on advanced technical school for applied science with relevant experience
- Several years of relevant professional experience as a project manager, ideally in a global corporate environment
- Knowledge of technical regulations, experience with technological processes in the pulp&paper industry and automation/electric in general
- Fluent English spoken and written, other foreign languages are an advantage
- Communication strength and intercultural competence
- Willingness to travel and flexibility
- Independent well structured working method, self- responsibility, and cooperativeness for teamwork
- Self initiative and entrepreneurial thinking
- Strong negotiating and leadership skills

OUR OFFER:

We can offer you a very high degree of decision-making tasks in an absolutely varied field of activities with an annual gross remuneration of EUR 60.000,- for this position. Depending on your qualification and work experience we definitely offer a market-compliant payment. All applications will be treated as strictly confidential.

Please submit your application incl. motivation letter not later than 31st May 2019 via application tracking system in our Sappi career portal www.sappi.com/careers-sappi-europe.

Contact

Ute Grossegger (phone: +43 3124 201 2321) and Jan Cauberg (phone: +31 433822 156)

sappi