Become part of our team and work with one of the hottest start-ups in the healthcare industry today. Our team is looking forward to working with you to realize our vision of using artificial intelligence in healthcare applications.

We are looking for a motivated employee who fits well into our team. Someone who can take over the development of our App SkinScreener for Android and iOS, make strategic decisions, and bring our App development to the next level. If you are motivated to the bone and know what it means to work in a start-up, we are looking forward to your application.

For the earliest possible start, we are looking for a

Mobile Developer Android/iOS, Digital Health (f/m/d)

Your Job

- Further development of our App SkinScreener in Android and iOS (Objective-C)
- Solution-oriented collaboration with our product manager embedded in a forward-thinking team
- Technical architecture decision making and taking part in fostering a culture of knowledge-sharing

Your Background

- Practical work experience in Android/iOS development
- Programming Languages: Swift, Objective-C/C++, Python, Java
- Know-how and experience in the development of native Android and iOS apps, Android Studio and Xcode
- Strong UI/UX orientation
- Enthusiasm for learning new languages
- Independent working ability, fast learner, and a high sense of self-responsibility
- Hands-on mentality and a motivated team player
- Excellent language skills in English

Nice to Have

- Completed studies in computer science
- German language skills

Perks & Benefits

- Flexible working hours (flextime)
- Option to work remotely
- Modern equipment (MacBook Pro)

Salary

For this position, we offer a monthly gross salary starting with 4.200€. Depending on your experience, qualification, and education, an overpayment is possible.

Please send your application to jobs@medaia.at

Dipl.-Ing. Thomas Miklau, MBA CEO
medaia GmbH
Neue Stiftungtalstraße 2/B/3
8010 Graz

medaia.at skinscreener.at